

For the most part gambling is recreational, social and a form of entertainment.

For others gambling can become a problem, negatively impacting family, community, and often contributes to personal disharmony and imbalance.

Tulalip Family Services

2821 Mission Hill Rd.
Tulalip, WA 98271

Telephone: 360-716-4400.
Fax: 360-651-4404

We are a state licensed treatment center and our counselors are dual licensed as Chemical Dependency Professionals and Washington State Gambling Counselor Certified.

Problem Gambling Program

Tulalip Tribes
Family Services

Mission

Our goal at Family Services Problem Gambling Program is to assist individuals and family members through the recovery process; allowing them to resume their life with a renewed sense of balance, health, responsibility and purpose.

Vision

Our treatment approach includes the use of a variety of holistic treatment modalities to enhance the recovery process. We honor cultural differences, tribal values, and unique needs to each individual and family member.

Services Include

Assessment/Evaluations

Family Counseling

Couples Counseling

Individual Counseling

Monthly Family Night

Weekly & Monthly
Treatment Groups

Women's Healing Circle prevention group/and activities.

Consultation

Referrals

Education/Outreach

Signs and Symptoms of Gambling Addiction

- Compromised relationships
- Bragging about or hiding gambling activity
- Lying about wins or losses
- Growing preoccupation with gambling
- A need to bet more money, more frequently
- Restlessness or irritability when attempting to stop
- Emotional distress related to gambling episodes
- "Chasing" after wins, resulting in greater losses
- Losing track of time while gambling
- Neglecting family members in order to gamble
- Loss of control in spite of mounting negative consequences